MILWAUKEE:

Wednesday Morning, April 8.

The Free City of St. Louis.

The indomitable freemen of St. Louis did a noble work on Monday at their Charter Election. They have commenced in earnest the work of placing Missouri in the glorious array of Free States, and have determined, as a first work, to rebuke Border Ruffianism at home. They nominated a full City Ticket on a bold Free Soil, Free Labor platform, and despite the endeavors of the "regular" Democracy to make capital against them by taunts of "Black Republicanism," they have swept the City, giving their Mayor a majority of over 1,500, and electing most of the ticket. Well done for St. Louis! How the zeal and energy of these noble laborers in a noble cause shame the partizans of Border Ruffian Democracy in Free States!

The Judicial Vote.

From the returns which we give, and various reports from the other wards, we think that the majority against Judge WHITON in this city cannot much exceed 2,000, if it reaches that figure.

BYRON PAINE, we are thankful to be able to say, is doubtless elected by some 1,500 majority over J. L. DORAN, the "regular" Democratic candidate.

MR. MCARTHUR had no opposition for Circuit Judge.

Well done for the Seventh.

The voters of the 7th ward did a good day's work yesterday, polling nearly a thousand votes and giving BYRON PAINE, for County Judge, become 780 majority over DORAN, the regular democratic candidate,—electing WM. A. PRENTISS for two years alderman, and J. H. GREVE for 1 year, and giving Judge WHITON 238 majority.

Close Work—Jackson Hadley.

The regular democratic candidate for 2 years Alderman in the 1st Ward, is elected over Nicholas O'Neill by 67 majority.

The Common Council.

Out of the 18 Aldermen elected, we believe that eleven were candidates on the People's ticket.

☞ We think there is no doubt of the election of the Marshal, Comptroller, and Attorney on the Reform ticket, although the Comptroller is close.

The Election.

The election yesterday passed off quietly, and but a light vote was polled. The weather was cold and damp in the forenoon, and a snow storm set in at about noon, which increased to a wild gale before 4 P. M., and effectually quieted all tendency to excitement, while it kept a great many people from the polls. We give below such returns as we were able to obtain. There was no opposition on Circuit Judge, Mayor Treasurer and Police Justice. The figures show a sharp contest on some of the other officers. A fair number of the candidates on the Reform Tickets are elected.

Collector for the Port of Milwaukee.

It is understood that MR. MORITZ SCHOEFFLER, editor of the Banner & Volksfreund, has received the appointment of Collector at this port. Mr. Schoeffler has been a resident of this city for nearly fourteen years, we believe, and in the management of a political press for a great portion of the time, has earned the respect due to gentlemanly bearing towards his contemporaries, while in the zeal manifested for the cause which he has adopted, he has deserved well of his party friends. He is well qualified for the post, and we doubt not will discharge its duties with fidelity, and courtesy toward all who come into contact with him.

FROM OUR NEW YORK CORRESPONDENT.

NEW YORK, April 1, '57

Our spring emigration is reviving, and the prospects are that the increase to our free population this year from Europe will be large and valuable, especially in the better provisions for comfort and progress of a large portion of the emigrants, in the pecuniary means they bring with them. It is lamentable to think that one of the finest portions of this or any other country, like Kansas, seems destined to be closed to the industry and settlement of these new comers, and is to be,—so far as Federal power, backing up the Slavery Propagnd, can determine such a result,—surrendered to the curse, sterility, and crimes of Slavery. The letter of Mr. Walker, accepting the Governorship of Kansas, re-assures me not at all, in the face of the conceded fact that all his power, and the power of the Administration at Washinton, are to be exerted to uphold the bloody and atrocious edicts, purporting to be laws, of the Missourians claiming to legislate for Kansas. The free people have wisely, I think, determined to abstain from any participation in an election held under these pretended laws; they must not—they cannot acknowledge their obligation, without at once admitting that all past opposition was factious and mutinous.

It is indeed argued by those whose hearts are faint and false—and in such an issue as this one is almost as bad as the other—that if the free-State men are in such preponderance as seems to be allowed, by going to the polls they could certainly elect a majority of their own way of thinking, and then fashion the new Constitution after their own views. But they cannot go to the polls, without admitting that the proceeding which called them there is under legal authority —that the oaths which will be tendered to them are lawful oaths, and that the official persons charged with conducting the election are rightfully selected and trustworthy. Going to the polls, they put themselves at the mercy of their adversaries, who, by fraud, by forgeries, by bloodshed, have shown themselves resolved to carry their point. Although the numerical majority of the electors should be clearly for freedom, it is a certainty in advance that the canvass, when made by such hands as it is entrusted to, would show a majority the other way, and the defrauded party would be concluded by the result. Oh! no; they have done wisely, those free-State men, not to fall into this trap—not to betray their cause by putting its decision into the hands of those banded to overthrow it at any cost. What the result may be, I hardly dare trust myself to think.

Our New York Legislature is drawing to its close. They will not adjourn—I think—without a vote of sympathy and of material aid for Kansas; nor without some stringent resolution on that crowning infamy, the Dred Scott decision. The heart of this great State is sound—however false may be the opinion of this great city, where Cotton has at least as many worshippers as conscience.

The European advices portend harmony, after its fashion, in the Old World. A matter of no small difficulty, however, is likely to arise, both for France and England, from the Chinese war, into which, undoubtedly, an effort will be made to drag us. The Celestials seem to be aroused to resistance, and the killing of a few thousands, or even tens of thousands of them, by the superior tactics and discipline of European naval and military forces, and the blowing up and burning of some of their sea-board towns, would advance the war not a peg; and a war carried on at such a distance from home is a very exhausting one—weakening both the Indian and home empire of England, and burdening France with expenditures which bring no return in glory or increased dominion. Meanwhile, the Russian, keeping out of the scrape himself, and quite well pleased to see his late adversaries spending themselves upon a new war, is quietly spreading his influence, and advancing his outposts, and strengthening his alliances in Asia; so that, when the wished for hour comes, he may be able to strike effectively at the great East Indian Colossus. We shall, I hope, be wise enough to keep out of these troubles, and let John Bull and his dear ally of France settle their matters for themselves.

We are not, it would seem, to be without our own troubles, over and above those of Kansas, in the conduct of the Mormons. It is undeniable that Saint Brigham Young has renounced his allegiance to Saint Buchanan—that the archives of the U. S. Courts and offices have been plundered and destroyed, and that the rule of the Gentiles is absolutely repelled. How far these odious fanatics may carry their operations is not easily foreseen. They are strong in numbers—strong in position—strong in fanatical delusion—and distance lends greater chance of impunity to their rebellious spirit. The Governorship of Utah is not, under these circumstances, a covet ed office. The best Governor for them will be a strong armed force that shall reinstate the ensigns of authority of the U. S. in Utah—re-open the proper Courts—and be present to enforce their decrees. Such a malady as that which afflicts these nasty saints can only be treated successfully by very vigorous practice.

With this 1st day of April we have damp weather, a most filthy, but very busy city—money becoming easier—and buildings innumerable in preparation.

THE MANTLE OF THE PROPHET STOLEN.—Great sensation has been occasioned among the "faithful" in Constantinople by the sudden disappearance of numerous relics of Mohammed and his successors. Among the articles stolen in the Sandschakil-Scherif, or sacred banner—the veritable mantle of the prophet. It is conjectured that the theft was committed for political purposes, at the instigation of a portion of the clergy. The matter was investigated by the ministry, and several insane were arrested on suspicion.

DEATH OF ANDERSSON, THE TRAVELLER.—Mr. ANDERSSEN, the Swedish traveller in Africa, whose book of adventures was heralded last fall by a very flattering letter from Col. Fremont, is dead, having been attacked by an elephant, while hunting, and trampled under foot. He was buried on the spot where he was killed.

From Kansas.

Correspondence of the St. Louis Democrat.

LAWRENCE, March 24.

A large number of new towns is starting in the South part of the territory. A portion of the emigrants who arrive turn round and leave immediately; but the greater portion scatter to different parts of the territory and locate. There is little difficulty in mechanics finding employment. The most profitable business for laborers is to get good claims and proceed to improvement. As the claims are rapidly being taken, those who come are willing to buy to get into particular neighborhoods. The remainder of the Delaware trust lands, which begin a few miles West of this, will be in the market in May next. The Iowa lands will also be sold at or June. They are near the Missouri River, that time. They are near the time. The lands of and close to the Nebraska The Weas will also be sold at that time. They are near the State line, out from Little Santa Fe and Harrisonville. They are well timbered and good farming lands. It is reported that the Weas reserve has been all taken by a land association from Missouri; these drive off all others who attempt to settle, or to take claims they have marked off. In consequence, that part of the territory is considered the least settled at the present time. There is no regular war there, but a great deal of quarreling and fighting which does not amount to much.

The Kansas River has been low recently, but is again rising. The steamer Lacon, which has been aground some two weeks, several miles below, has just arrived at Lawrence.

The census-takers, under the bogus constitutional laws, are at work. They are not very thorough. Some neighborhoods they do not visit at all, and they do not get the names of one-half the actual residents even where they go. They are the sheriff's deputies. They get four dollars a day for it. Their operations, since they began to take this census, show that the whole thing will be a most barefaced fraud from the beginning.

WEEKLY LINE OF STEAMERS FROM THE ST. LAWRENCE TO LIVERPOOL.—A bill has passed a second reading in the Canadian Legislature appropriating £50,000 per annum for six years, towards supporting a weekly line of steamers from St. Lawrence to Liverpool.

IMPORTANT REVELATIONS.

Letter from a Minnesota Farmer.

CONVERSATION WITH GOV. GEARY—HIS TREATMENT BY THE ADMINISTRATION.

From the Detroit Tribune.

TREMONT HOUSE, CHICAGO, March 30.

Thus far on my way from Washington to my home in Minnesota, I cannot better spend an hour than detailing the substance of, and, as far as I am able, the language used in, a conversation with Gov. Geary, in Washington, on Wednesday last. I was introduced to the Governor by an old and valued friend of his, and was very cordially received. I found him to be a gentleman of about 40 years of age, tall, well proportioned, evidently athletic, and with a very honest and agreeable face. Of course, our conversation turned at once upon what is now uppermost in every mind—the affairs of Kansas. I have, all my life, been what is called a National Democrat; and though my territorial residence forbade me taking any part in the last Presidential election, my sympathies and hopes were earnestly for Mr. Buchanan. I was not, then, as you may imagine, exactly prepared to hear the tale that Gov. Geary told. I had looked upon the reports which were circulated in opposition newspapers, as grossly exaggerated statements of occurrences in the Territory; and, though willing to admit that the pro-Slavery men had been guilty of some excess, I consoled myself with the natural supposition that the other side was equally to blame. Even the report of the conversation of the Governor in the office of the Missouri Democrat, I looked upon as a partizan statement, greatly distorted for political purposes. Judge then of my surprise, to hear, from his lips, a confirmation of all that I had looked upon as false, before; and to hear the remarks attributed to him by the Democrat, not only reaffirmed but repeated with minute details which greatly heightened the effect of what he had to say.

I do not propose to detail at length the conversation that filled almost an hour, but I cannot refrain from calling your attention and that of your readers, to the few points which have not appeared in the many reports given by the public press. Passing over his confirmation of the charges of atrocities, which have filled the Republican papers—a confirmation, direct, positive and unequivocal—I will mention what he said in relation to the withdrawal of troops:

"Every Pro-Slavery man of influence, as well as many of the saloon-keepers, common loafers and the like, knew of the proposed withdrawal; and I was taunted by them—some of them the vilest of the vile—with the fact that I was to be left unsupported, long before I had any official notification of what was intended. I did not pay any attention to these things, inasmuch that I, though then suspicious, yet depended upon the positive assurances of the Administration that I should be sustained. The discovery that the people of the Territory were to be left at the mercy of the assassins by whom they were threatened, was the severest trial to which I was subjected."

I repeat his language as literally as possible; and I am sure that I do not color or exaggerate the facts. In relation to the character of the men who have been laboring to destroy his power and influence, he observed:—

"There are men here in Washington now, seeking for office, and with the probability that they will get what they ask, whose hands and arms are up to their elbows are red with blood. I know them to be murderers! Yet they are graciously received by Mr. Buchanan and the Cabinet; and their statements are taken as true wherever they conflict with mine. They are treated with more cordiality and favor than I, who have tried to discharge my duty faithfully and honestly, can ever hope to be."

In relation to the coming election and the probable complexion of the Constitutional Convention, he said:—

"I believe that at least two-thirds of the people of the Territory are in favor of making Kansas free; but under the operation of the plans which their opponents have devised, there is no doubt that a Pro Slavery Constitution will be framed."

The difference between the two parties, he stated as follows:—

"Among the Pro-Slavery men, there is no freedom of speech or the press—hardly of opinion. The first inquiry made by them of every new comer, is, 'Where are you from?' and if the answer is 'From the North,' that man is mobbed, and neither his person nor property is safe. They have established a reign of Terror. Among the Free State men, I found nothing of this: every man who has an opinion is at liberty to express it without molestation. I had no trouble with them after the first difficulties were over —none whatever."

The Governor was very direct and explicit in his charges against the late Administration, and by no means disposed to spare that now in power. He seemed to speak as an honest, injured man. Going to Kansas with the intention of dealing alike with all parties, and enforcing the laws as he found them, without inquiry as to how or by whom they were made, he soon learned that that policy was not what his party there or his superiors in office desired. "They" (I use his words) "dreaded nothing so much as impartiality;" and as soon as they ascertained that he was not to be used for their purposes, his troubles and persecutions commenced. He complained that his dispatches sent to the Department of State were grossly garbled in publication, when they were permitted to see the light at all. The parts which were supposed to be offensive to the Pro Slavery party were stricken out; and the "country" said he, "has never yet learned the whole truth." He thought that no objection was even made to any strictures upon the Free State men; but when the truth was told of their opponents, it was "going out ox."

In this conversation of which I have given but a brief outline, the Governor thought there were others in the room, a part of the time at least, to whom he spoke principally to me, as I had particularly requested a statement of facts as they had come under his observation. He did not speak under excitement, but discreetly and with apparent care to tell the exact truth. His Secretary—the name I do not recollect—was present during the conference, and he, often in the most emphatic manner, confirmed the Governor's words. Indeed, so excited was he, at times, when a topic of peculiar interest was touched—the murder of Buffum, for instance—that his indignation manifested not only in his words, but in an exceedingly demonstrative personal manner. When, thoroughly aroused by the Governor's narration, I asked him: "Governor, what am I, a Northern Democrat, to do? I am tempted to declare, here, that I am ready to work hereafter with the Republican party!" he answered quickly and decisively—

"There seems to be no other course for an honest and intelligent man to pursue."

I have thus given you a sketch of what occurred in an interview which has left me in no doubt of what is my duty to do. I believe—religiously believe—that Governor Geary is an honest and conscientious man, and that he told me the truth. I go home to my farm in Minnesota, ready to co-operate with any men or any party to make, not only Minnesota, but every party to make, not only Minnesota, but every other Territory, now and forever hereafter free.

Allow me in conclusion to say that I did not go to Washington to breathe the atmosphere which I there found. My business was not of a political nature, but connected with the settlement of some disputed land claims, for myself and others, in the General Land Office. I am glad to get back, out of the cringing servility of Northern men of my own party, of which I was the unwilling witness.

JOSEPH FORD,
FOUNTAIN GROVE, Rice County, M. T.

The President's "Impartial Treatment" of Kansas.

The President has made the following Kansas appointments:—John M. Whitfield, Register, and Daniel Woodson, of Kansas, Receiver for the Delaware Land District; Frederick Emory, Register, and James P. Dowley, Receiver for the Western Land District.

Whitfield is the well-known leader in the first Missouri invasion which went into Kansas, and the delegate to Congress, twice "elected" by the Border Ruffians. Woodson is the Secretary, who in Gov. Reeder's absence assumed the reins of power; co-operated with the Missourians and connived at the escape of murderers and incendiaries. It was he that headed the gang of Missourians, "Buford's men," "Titus's men," &c., known as the "Kansas Militia," which mobbed and burnt the houses of the Free State Settlers, near Lecompton. Emory is a mail agent, [illegible] been the leader in several outrages upon the settlers, [illegible] which was the cold-blooded murder of William Phillips in his own house at Leavenworth, and the subsequent driving out of all the Free State families in the town. These are men whom President Buchanan appoints to administer the laws and finger the Public Money in Kansas! Such is the "impartiality" he begins with.

We publish a letter in another column showing Gov. Geary's opinion of these successful applicants for places of trust in Kansas. "Their hand and arms up to their elbows," says he, "are red with blood. I know them to be murderers! Yet they are graciously received and treated with more cordiality and favor than I, who have tried to discharge my duty fairly and honestly, can ever hope to be."—Albany Evening Journal.

CHICAGO AND MILWAUKEE RAILROAD.—The daily trains on this road are crowded. Five first class cars, one second class and two baggage cars all "chuck full," at a single train, is the way it measures business. The line of Clement steamers are now controlled by this Company, and they will soon commence running from here to Two Rivers. The success of this road is without a parallel in Western Railroading.—Chicago Democrat.

Laws of Wisconsin.

AN ACT to restore the right of appeals from the award of Jurors, in laying out and widening Public Squares, streets, alleys, and other grounds in the city of Milwaukee.

The People of Wisconsin, represented in the Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections five and six of an act approved March 13th, 1856, entitled "An act to amend the act to consolidate and amend the act to incorporate the city of Milwaukee, and the several acts amendatory thereof," approved February 20th, 1852, are hereby repealed; and section 21 of chapter six, referred to in said section six, is hereby restored and declared to be in full force and effect. Provided, that in case of any appeal under the provisions of the section hereby restored, the award of damages and benefits made by the jurors appointed to make the same, together with all the proceedings of the Common Council in relation thereto, shall be certified and sent up to the Court, to which such appeal shall have been taken; and in the trial of such appeal, the jury empanelled to try the same shall determine as well the necessity of taking the lands for the purposes required, as the amount of damages and benefits to be paid, and the Court shall permit any persons interested in such damages or benefits to become parties to such appeal upon their petition, setting forth the nature and extent of such interest.

Sec. 2. In all cases where appeals were taken under said Sec. 21, before said act, approved March 13th, 1856, was in force, the appeals may be prosecuted, if not otherwise determined by trial, or the voluntary act of the appellant, as if said act had not passed, and in all cases arising since the said act became in force, in which the right of appeal would have existed, under said section 21, had not said act been passed, the parties who, by virtue of said section had the right of appeal, may (if such right has not otherwise been forfeited) appeal to the Circuit Court within forty days after this act shall take effect according to the provisions of the charter of said city, and all proceedings of the Common Council upon such award shall be suspended until the final determination of such appeal.

Sec. 3. In all cases of appeals taken as provided for in this act, where the Jury shall award damages to the owner of any lot, or part of a lot, and judgment shall have been rendered on such verdict, the said city of Milwaukee shall pay the amount of such judgment within six months after the same shall have been rendered.

Sec. 4. This act shall take effect from and after its passage, and shall be forthwith published.

AN ACT to provide for Town Cemeteries.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

§ 1. It shall be the duty of the town boards of the several towns in this State, on the application of the freeholders of any town, in writing, at any regular meeting of such board, may, provided they shall deem it necessary so to do, purchase in the name of the towns, suitable grounds, not exceeding twenty acres, for and to be used exclusively as a town cemetery; which said grounds, or such portion thereof as may from time to time become necessary for that purpose, shall be surveyed, divided and platted into lots of such size, and with such avenues, alleys and walks as the town board shall direct, and a map of such survey shall be filed in the office of the town clerk; and the ground so purchased shall under and by the direction of the town board, be inclosed by a good and appropriate fence as soon as practicable.

§ 2. After such map shall have been filed in the office of the town clerk, as above provided, the town board may take the name of the town, sell and convey the lots as designated on such map, upon such terms and subject to such conditions as said board shall prescribe. Provided, That every conveyance of any such lot or lots shall be expressly for burial purposes and no other, and shall be executed in the name of the town, and signed by the chairman of supervisors and attested by the clerk of such town.

§ 3. The proceeds arising from the sale of said lots, shall by said board, be applied to the payment of any debts incurred by the town in the purchase, fencing and embellishing such ground, and the avenues leading thereto, and in defraying the necessary expense in the management and care of the same, and for no other purpose.

§ 4. After there shall have been an interment in any lot conveyed as above provided, such lot from the time of such first interment shall forever thereafter be inalienable, and shall on the death of the proprietor thereof, descend to his heirs, but any one or more of such heirs may release to any other of such heirs, his, her or their interest in such lot, which release shall be filed in the office of the town clerk.

§ 5. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

THE WHEAT PROSPECT.—We regret to be informed by farmers, both in this county and Mercer, that the intense cold during the first of March has rendered the prospect for a crop of wheat rather dubious in this section. We hope that a large breadth of wheat and other grains may be sown this spring, and much corn planted. Farmers should look after this matter, and make liberal calculations in season.—*Oquawka (Ill.) Railroad from Charleston to Memphis.

Southern papers chronicle the passage of the first train of cars, the entire distance from Savannah and Charleston, on the Atlantic Ocean, to Memphis, on the Mississippi River. A gentleman, who has just passed over the line, having left Memphis last Sunday, says that on that day but six miles of bridging were encountered between the Mississippi and Chatanooga. The gap was to be closed with iron bars—immediately. Now for the first time there is uninterrupted railroad communication through slaveholding States from the Atlantic to the Mississippi. Savannah is thus brought within 741 miles, or a little less than 40 hours' travel of Memphis.

A Query for the Scientific.

To the Editors of the Albany Evening Journal:

Every schoolboy is taught that a ship going round the world westward gains a day, or if eastward loses one. Connected with this astronomical fact, is a problem, which has been frequently propounded among scientific circles, but has never to my knowledge been answered, and which I bear is now under discussion in one of our Southern cities. It is this:

Suppose a man to leave the Dudley Observatory, for instance, at precisely twelve o'clock, noon, on Monday, and to travel West at the same rate as the sun, so as to continually keep that luminary directly over his head—where would the man first meet with Tuesday? If he asked everybody he met the day of the week, where would they be first begin to answer him that it was Tuesday?

Will not some of your learned correspondents solve this knotty point, and explain how he does it?

COPERNICUS.

THE DUTY OF KEEPING QUIET.—Is it charity, [illegible] says it, gazing him to my boy, that you want [illegible] ward me with my fore finger. It is, Take it, says I, tapping him on the head with the soft end of my shillalah. Murther, says he. Lie still, ye blackguard, says I.

The concluding exhortation of Paddy to his Neapolitan pupil seems to be taken as a text by the organs of the slave-holding party—the Southern newspapers of the day—from Washington to New Orleans. The cry of the Washington Union and all who follow its lead is, "Lie still, ye blackguard."—N. Y. Post.

"SWEET HOME."—A praiseworthy attempt is being made in Boston to erect a monument to the memory of John Howard Payne, the author of that touching song, "Home, Sweet Home."—It is said that before leaving for Tunis, (where he died,) he was one evening walking with a friend in New York, when they heard voices in a house singing his sweet song. They stopped beneath the window, and at the conclusion of the melody Payne gave a heavy sigh, and remarked: "How little do they know of the author, who has no sweet home."

A Conscientious Dog.

My father had a dog of the spaniel breed, whose name was Ponto. Now Ponto, though decidedly waggish in one point, had given evidence of becoming more religious than many of his canine neighbors. True, he would never turn the other cheek, and consequently while he had a good character with the peace society, he was scouted by the non-resistants. But Ponto was always regular at church, and in one instance at least gave evidence that he went there with an idea that honesty and religion had some connection with each other. He was safe enough in this notion, for a more honest dog never barked. Ponto always walked into church with the family, though he invariably took his seat on the lower stairs of the sacred desk, and none but the oldest in the congregation remembered when his seat was vacant.

I ought to have remarked sooner that Ponto had but one enemy in the wide world, who was the Deacon of the church, and our next neighbor. I forget the cause—perhaps some slander against Ponto in the days of puppyhood, when it must be confessed, that he was too much addicted to fun to comport with a deacon's idea of propriety. Certain it is, Ponto growled at nobody but Deacon Drury; and the Deacon threw a stone at nothing so furiously as at Ponto. If either exemplified the golden rule toward the other, it was Ponto.

So things stood at a certain time when the good Pastor was called away for a long journey. But parson or no parson, the family all went to church on the following Sabbath, and none with a longer face, or more gracious step than Ponto. His accustomed seat was taken; and when the congregation rose for the early morning prayer, Ponto rose with the rest—all he had always done—and stood with closed eyes and open ears, waiting for the first word of supplication. To the utter astonishment of no one but Ponto, the word came in the voice of his old enemy, the pious Deacon. If the big bible had fallen on Ponto's tail, he could not have looked for the cause with a more rapid glance than he cast upwards at the pulpit. He fixed his eyes on the face of the deacon, as if to be sure of the sacrilege, and then, with a look of pious horror I shall never forget, and a step as fast as the place would allow, he passed out of the house and took a bee line across the fields. From that day forth as long as Ponto lived, he could never be flattered or exhorted to enter the church door again; and whenever, from necessity, he passed it on week days, it was with a look that said, "If Deacon Drury prays, the church may count Ponto among backsliders."—Knickerbocker.

WASHINGTON DESCRIBED.—Washington, people say, ought not to have been built on that low, unhealthy spot. But the truth is, Washington is a mistake all round. It was not meant to stand where it does. The city was laid out on a high elevated plain, but the inhabitants perversely went down to live in the marsh. The consequence is a jumble. Magnificent paved streets leading nowhere. Gas lamps lighting potato fields. The majestic Capitol fronts waste their beauty on the desert air; while Congress climbs to its august deliberations up the back stairs. The navy wharves and workshops are two miles out in the country. The President's country seat is in the heart of the town. The Sixth Ward is chiefly used for grazing cattle.—The Monument towers up in a hollow. The grand Avenue runs along the main drain of a swamp, and hotels keep a constant supply of the Potomac in the cellar. Had the town stood where its founders intended, Anacostia, now a separate village, would have been embraced in it; and Georgetown, which joins the very sidewalks, would have been a mile off. The city, "set upon a hill," could not have been hid; and from its commanding position, would have presented to the approaching traveler a more imposing appearance than either New York, or Boston.—Albany Eve. Journal.

ST. GEORGE OF ENGLAND A HUMBUG.—"George of Cappadocia, born at Epiphania in Cilicia, was a low parasite, who got a lucrative contract to supply the army with bacon. A rogue and an informer, he got rich and had to run from justice. He saved his money, embraced Arianism, collected a library, and got promoted by a faction to the Episcopal throne of Alexandria.—When Julian came, A. D. 361, George was thrown into prison; the prison was burst open by the mob, and George was lynched as he deserved. And this precious knave became, in good time, St. George of England, patron of chivalry, emblem of victory and civility, and the pride of the best blood of the modern world. Strange that the solid, truth speaking Britos should derive from an impostor! Strange that the New World should have no better luck—that broad America must wear the name of a thief. Amerigo Vespucci, the pickle dealer at Seville, who went out in 1499, a subaltern with Ojeda, and whose highest naval rank was boatswain's mate in an expedition that never sailed, managed in this lying world to supplant Columbus, and baptize half the world with his own dishonest name. Thus nobody can throw stones. We are equally badly off in our own founders; and the false pickle dealer is an offset to the false bacon seller.—R. W. Emerson.

TO CLEAN PAINT.—Smear a piece of flannel with common whiting, mixed to the consistency of common paste, in warm water. Rub the surface to be cleaned quite briskly, and wash off with pure cold water. Grease spots will in this way be almost instantly removed, as well as other filth, and the paint will retain its brilliancy and beauty unimpaired.

☞ The Marquette Journal has received information that indications of coal have been found in the vicinity of the Menominee river, though as yet nothing definite has been learned. Should there be an abundance of coal found there, it will entirely change the complexion of the iron business in that vicinity, and we shall look for further developments with much interest.

Ship Building at Buffalo.

Our ship builders are now very busy, the fine weather enabling them to employ all the forces they can muster. All is the sound activity of the yards, and the air is filled with the hum of the saws, and the reverberation of the heavy sledges, make a music very agreeable to the ears of ship-owners and commercial citizens.

Mr. M. Jones has already launched the fore-and-aft schooner D. Vernon, of about 300 tons, cost $14,000, for the Lake Navigation Company; the fore-and-aft schooner Ethan Allen, 375 tons, cost $18,000, for R. R. Johnson, and the propeller Eclipse, about 600 tons, cost $45,000, for Dean Richmond. Mr. Jones has recently contracted to build and will soon launch the vessels of two schooners for Capt. Dimlow, of this city. They will be of 330 tons burthen, and will cost $20,000 each. They will class without doubt, A 1, under the rules of the Lake Underwriters. He has also another contract for a tug for Capt. Snow, 106 tons, to cost $12,000. Mr. J. will launch another propeller for Dean Richmond this week. The three propellers which he is building for Mr. R. are modeled with special reference to their carrying capacity; are heavy timbered and well fastened, and have vertical oscillating cylinders. They are to be more after the pattern of the Upper Lakes boats, in connection with the New York Central Railroad.

Bidwell, Banta & Co. will have the steamer City of Buffalo ready to launch next week, Wednesday. This will be the most splendid craft ever placed upon our inland waters, and, if the expectations of her friends and builders are not disappointed, the fastest steamer in the world. No money or care is to be spared to make her every way desirable, either as to speed or comfort. Two decks are already launched two schooners for H. G. Wilcox, about 350 tons each, cost in the aggregate $56,000; and a tug for parties in Chippewa. We were not able to learn the names of these. D. B. & Co. have also launched their new steamer, the City of Concord. She is of 300 tons burthen, and will cost about $75,000. This steamer is built after the model of the Western Metropolis, (which was built by them last season and has proved one of the best,) and will be a swift as well as an elegant boat. She has been chartered by the Michigan Central Railroad, and will run in the line between Cleveland and Detroit. She will be ready for business about the 20th of April.

The vessels which will be launched from our yards this spring and summer will be of a far greater class than ever before built here. Ship builders and owners seem to have concluded it best to contract with reference to the high standard required by underwriters, and in consequence of their decision [illegible] and builders better pay.—Buff. Com.

☞ The Forester came down from Fort Huron yesterday, and her captain informs us that considerable ice [illegible] Lake Huron was making its way down. The Forest [illegible] bound for Saginaw and the fisheries above, was detained at Fort Huron by the ice, the wind having blown it over on the American shore. It was thought that she would get off, and should she will be able to reach Saginaw by Monday.—Det. Adv., 4th.

STEAMER QUEEN CITY.—This steamer since her accident last fall has been thoroughly overhauled, new deck frames have been furnished her, her engine has been thoroughly repaired, and upon the opening of the lake to Buffalo she will be in as perfect trim as ever. It is the intention now, to run her in the Buffalo and Detroit day trade this season, and she will be ready for business as soon as the ice can get into Buffalo harbor. Capt. Chamberlain is to command her.—Det. Adv., 4th.

☞ The steamer Monarch which was wrecked opposite Toronto last Fall, was sold on the 24th ult., for $875, to Mr. P. Benady, agent of the North Western Insurance Company, Oswego, and Mr. William Murray, Manager of the Montreal Insurance Company, both of whom acted on behalf of the companies which she represented. The hull lies imbedded in the sand, and the engines and boiler are on the beach, having been raised.—Buff. Courier.

POLICE COURT: APRIL 6.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

William Bean drunk, (second offence) fined $2,00.

Edward Maline, drunk and disorderly, fined $3,00.

Hermann Frank, vagrancy, discharged to the custody of the Superintendent of the Poor.

THE POLICE JUSTICE—It is a fair presumption that when a candidate's name is on all the tickets in the field, on an election day, that that candidate will be elected; all politicians will agree to the "truth of the presumption." On the tickets headed with "Buck's Head"—poor Buck is somewhat hydra in his nature—on the tickets that were headed by the "People," and on all other tickets in use yesterday, there was but one name as a candidate for the office of Police Justice, CLINTON WALWORTH; and long before the carrier boy has dropped this article, snugly folded in the Sentinel, upon the reader's door step, the election of Mr. WALWORTH, to the office of Police Justice, will have taken place, and that too without opposition for eleven years.

The present incumbent of the office was first elected Justice of the Peace in this city in 1843; in 1844 was Justice of the Peace and County Treasurer; in 1845 was elected Judge of the Probate Court for two years, serving in 1845 in both capacities as Judge and Justice; in 1846 Judge of Probate only; in '7 he retired to the private practice of the law; in 1848 elected Police Justice, and from that time to 1852, the extent of time of the present election, Mr. WALWORTH has had no opposition either in caucus, convention or election.

This is a marked expression of the people's confidence in the integrity and the legal ability of the Police Justice; coming, as it has always come, from a people very mixed in their political views; it is a fitting reward for faithful services by a faithful servant, and should be followed by another expression of public approbation an increased salary. To a man who has for 9 years served the public without faltering, and who has saved them tens of thousands of dollars by his severe application to their interests, the public should be liberal in their remuneration; we feel satisfied that to the suggestion we have made the public will respond in the affirmative, and that they will mete out a suitable salary to their Police Justice, who, for nine successive years, has served them, without losing a day or absenting himself from his office, except from sickness. An honest and faithful servant should be well rewarded.

Notice Extraordinary!

WE WOULD NOTIFY the merchants and the public generally in the Western States that the Match Manufactory of R. W. PIERCE & CO., Milwaukee, Wis., by the most successful operation, notwithstanding the declarations of a match concern in Detroit, Mich., that our establishment had burned down—that R. W. PIERCE & Co. had failed—that no more R. W. PIERCE'S matches would be seen in the market, &c. &c.—are well aware that all such assertions will in due time recoil with bad effect upon the party who originated them, and what we wish is, that the public should be put right in the matter. We now have facilities for manufacturing matches as cheap, or cheaper than any other establishment in the West, and as to the quality, we will leave those who have used them for the last thirteen years to be the judges, and will only remark that our business has increased from less than $1000, in 1844, to more than $30,000, in 1856.

All orders for matches promptly filled.

INSTRUCTION.

SALOM'S
MERCANTILE COLLEGE!
A Perpetual Ticket for $25!

GENTLEMEN desirous of acquiring a thorough Mercantile Education, are assured that the advantages presented at this institution are unsurpassed.

The Principal takes this opportunity to acknowledge the courtesy of several of the most distinguished Shipping and Jobbing Houses in the East, who recently allowed him to examine their books, besides explaining many original plans for economizing labor, which, adopted as in some instances after the experience of half a century, may be justly designated the ne plus ultra of the art.

This advantage, grafted upon Mr. SALOM'S long practical experience in a variety of Counting Houses, have enabled him to elaborate a novel and valuable series of transactions, introducing all the great heads and ramifications of mercantile routine to be actually developed by the student. A perpetual ticket confers the privilege of instruction in Book-Keeping at all times, as well as tuition in Writing, Mercantile Calculations, Law, Correspondence Forms, &c.

The Surveying and Mathematical department is in progress during the day and evening.
